Dear Customers and Partners,

Following the Government's announcement about a new lockdown in England, we would like to confirm that HepcoMotion remains open and operational. As part of the critical national infrastructure, we have remained open throughout the pandemic and previous lockdowns, maintaining our production and supply to customers around the world with essential products required to keep the country operating and supporting vital sectors.

The safety of our employees is paramount and we are continuing to review and implement safety measures throughout our business to protect our employees. All office functions are operating with reasonably normal service, but with most people continuing to work from home. Our sales teams are available to discuss applications over the phone or via zoom.

We wish you and your family good health and look forward to brighter times ahead.

Kind Regards,

Peter Fanshawe
