

INTRODUCTION TO GFX

The Hepco GFX guidance system has been developed alongside Beckhoff to provide a durable guidance solution for the XTS. GFX is now recognised as the standard solution in many markets.

The Hepco marketing team are creating regular content to show the benefits of GFX/XTS and showcase how designers are using the technology to create new possibilities.

In this kit you will find links to download video and access our GFX case studies. We are creating new content all the time, so this is a live document which will be updated regularly.
